

Chancellor Weekly Brief | 7.20.2021 Dr. James Malm

VAX THE PACK.

Dear educational

GRAM

critical mission to eradicate COVID-19 and safely return to full campus operations just 23rd. While our community has done exceptionally well in its commitment to be vaccinated, we still have a number of people who have not been vaccinated.

News coverage, there is a concerning rise in the number of cases, serious illness, and vaccinated. While the UNM system, including UNM-Gallup, will not implement a for students, we strongly encourage all to get their COVID-19 vaccine.

An incentive program that will put $100 (in federal HEERF funds) into their COVID-19 vaccination. A $1,000. Please visit <https://goto.unm.edu/vaccinationstatus> _____ to upload your documentation.

If you've lost your vaccination card, you can go to vaccineview.org. Vaccination is free. And while the incentive programs hopefully encourage you to get vaccinated, the peace of mind you'll have that you won't transmit COVID-19 to elders and to people in our community who are vulnerable should also motivate you to get your vaccine. Let's "Vax the Pack" and ensure that our return to campus this fall is joyful and safe for all.

Please stay safe and stay well.

Best Regards,

Office of the Chancellor

Dr. James R. Malm, Chancellor
Professor of Business
